

Norcan Company presents Electricity poles to community

From Dominic Kuml, Konongo. A/A

NORCAN MINES, a mining company operating in about seven towns in the Asante Akim North and Ejisu-Juaben Districts of Ashanti has donated 20 electricity service poles to the people of Adumasa where they are currently camped.

The Norcan Company, which started as A.C. MARKETING COMPANY changed to VISTA mines before settling, finally on its current name (NORCAN MINES) has its headquarters in Accra-Labonne.

Norcan Mining Company, presented 20 electricity service poles to the people of Adumasa in the Ejisu-Juaben District of Ashanti, which cost over ₵ 32,000,000. This followed a request by the Chief and elders of Adumasa town.

Making the presentation on Tuesday June 20, 2006 on behalf of the company, the area Manager, Mr. Joseph Emmanuel Kwofie said, the presentation forms part of the numerous plans by Norcan Mines, to improve the living standard of the people. Mr. Kwofie noted that, the company has been with the people for a long time without any problem and so they were duty bound to contribute their widow's mite.

He said Norcan Company, unlike some other companies live closer to the citizens thereby feeling part and parcel of the Community. The company, he observed, is also bent to offer further assistance when the need arises.

The manager indicated that, there have been other instances where the company has supplied footballs and inflators to some schools in their operational areas. The company is now operating in about six towns in the Asante Akim North and Ejisu-Juaben Districts, and has compensated all affected citizens during their mining operations.

The Assemblyman of Adumasa, Hon. Kwabena Adu Sarkodie showed his deepest appreciation and thanked the company for their kind gesture as well as their sense of responsibility.

The Gyasssehene of the town, Nana Yaw Boakye, together with the Queen Mother, Nana Ama Adwapa showered a lot of gratitude to their benefactors.

They also praised the Norcan Company for their peaceful co-existence with the people of Adumasa.

NGO supports AnloGold Ashanti, Assembly against malaria ...Donates 300 nets to three communities