Ashanti Sankofa Updates its Private Placement

Vancouver, BC, February 8, 2021 - Ashanti Sankofa Inc. ("Ashanti" or the "Company") (TSXV: ASI) announces that it plans to close the first tranche of private placement (the "Offering") as announced on November 25, 2020 to raise up to $150,000 at $0.02, which private placement is pursuant to a discretionary waiver of the $0.05 minimum pricing requirement granted by the TSX Venture Exchange (the "Exchange"), in the next few days, which will be announced as soon as applicable. The first tranche remains subject to final Exchange approval.

The Company further wishes to announce that it plans to continue with the remaining portion of the Offering, but at the price of $0.025 per share by using up to 6,000,000 units. Each unit will consist of one common share of the Company and one transferable common share purchase warrant exercisable to acquire an additional common share of the Company for a term of two years from issuance at price of $0.05 per share.

The proceeds of the Offering will be used for settling the outstanding liabilities, maintaining mine site workers in Ghana, management fees, administrative expenses for its head office, other continuous disclosure obligations and working capital.

Closing of the Offering is subject to a number of conditions, including receipt of all necessary corporate and regulatory approvals, including that of the Exchange.

All securities issued in connection with the Offering will be subject to a statutory hold period of four months plus a day from the date of issuance in accordance with applicable securities legislation.
